The trial of Carter R. Bishop, the former cashier of the Appomatiox Trust Company, on indictments Nos.
1 and 2, of the series of indictments charging false entries, is set for trial on Wednesday, May 3, and, it is uniderstood, will undoubtedly take place on that day. Mr. Bishop has elected to be tried separately on these joint indictments, and will be defended by the law firm of Willeox & Willcox. It is expected that considerable difficulty may be found in getting a jury as the cases have been so widely discussed, and so many of our people were directly or indirectly interested in the bank.
